IT WILL BE PUBLISHED Standing of the Contestants in The Review's Big Contest

On account of the absence of W. L. Stamey, editor, it will be impossible to render a statement of the number of votes to the credit of each contestant today, our contest manager having been on double duty this week. We will prepare the statement and publish a standing of each contestant on Friday 21, in our issue of October 29th. Now get this straight. On October 29th you will know how you all stood at 6 p. m., October 21. We regret very much to disappoint you, but we feel sure you understand our position.

MRS. S. M. FARABEE HAS PASSED AWAY

Mrs. S. M. Farabee died Thursday morning at 2:30 o'clock, at her home on North Main street. Her death was caused by a stroke of paralysis. She was 76 years of age and had scores of friends that today are sad on account of her unexpected demise. Mrs. Farabee enjoyed reasonably good health for a lady of her age. She is survived only by her sister, Mrs. Sam English, of Trinity. The funeral service took place at her home Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock, being conducted by Rev. J. E. Thompson, of Washington Street M. E. Church, of which she was a member.

DEATH OF J. E. L. ARMFIELD

Mr. J. E. L. Armfield died at St. Luke's Hospital in Fayetteville Sunday morning. He had been operated upon for acute appendicitis on Thursday night and the operation was successful. The cause of his death was due to Bright's disease. Mr. Armfield was president of Armfield & Company's grocery house of this city.

DEATH OF TOM HARRIS

Mrs. Tom Harris received a message Monday telling of the death of husband who had died in Hot Springs, Ark., where he had been for some time being treated for rheumatism. Mr. Harris resided at one time in High Point and has a host of friends here who will be grieved to hear of his death.

"ARISE, THROW OFF THY SHACKLES"

Exchange Doubt for Confidence and Become Master of Your Own
Destiny in The Review's Big Contest.

It was a red letter day for the people of High Point and Surrounding country when The Review was launched into the sea of activity. A little over two years ago, The Review made its first appearance. By many it was looked upon as an experiment. It has long since past the experimental stage and is now a strong eight-page paper issued every Friday afternoon, and counts its friends by the scores. Contestants, avail yourself of the grand opportunity The Review is offering you. Wake-up! Ginger-up! Stir-about! and cover your territory systematically. There is scarcely a home in Guilford county but is anxious to subscribe for The Review, for The Review is the people's paper, in fact it is of the people. It will stand each of you in hand to gather about you such friends as you know you can count upon. Form them into a battalion, bound by the love and esteem they have for you, and charge the enemy, never allowing him to pass until you have secured the much wanted subscription. Elsewhere you will find the announcement of the result of the race that closed Thursday at five p. m., for Leonard-Beavans-Stamey Company's prize, a handsome kimona, also $2.50 in gold to young lady outside of High Point.

DON'T FORGET THE $5.00

The above sum in gold will be paid to the one who nominates the winner of the first prize in The Review's big contest. Fill out nomination blank elsewhere and send in at once with the name of the one who you think will win the prize. Don't forget to date your guess.

A $5.00 HAT

This time 'tis Miss Venetia Smith, the popular milliner, that offers to the young lady contestant a special prize. No comment is necessary. If it comes from Miss Smith's establishment every one knows it is up-to-date and of proper quality. From her excellent and carefully selected stock, the most fastidious find it easy to satisfy their wishes. The young lady securing the largest number of Subscriptions and votes from Monday morning 7 o'clock, October 24th, 1910, to Thursday afternoon 5 p. m., November 3rd, 1910, will be awarded this handsome hat, or $5.00 credit on any hat in the establishment by Miss Venetia Smith.

SOMETHING NEW FOR HIGH POINT

On the evening of October 19th, at the Amos Furniture Company's store, the Guilford Concert Band was organized. This splendid organization is under the directorship of Prof. F. E. Smith, which means that High Point is soon to have a musical organization second to none in the Old North State. They have already on roll the following gentlemen and several others will join at once. The following are the members who perfected the organization:

E. F. Smith, director.
J. A. Eshelman
J. G. Hege
C. L. Amos
J. J. Griffith
Douglas Hayworth
George Lowe
Thomas Free
Robert Grissom
E. H. Jarrett
R. H. Sechrest
J. V. Garrett

Music has been ordered and in a short time we will enjoy first-class band music in our city.

Mrs. S. H. Tomlinson is visiting in Greensboro.

Mrs. L. M. Dodamead visited relatives in Asheville last week.

Miss Hazel Briggs, a student of Guilford College, spent Sunday with her parents here.

Dr. J. R. Reitzel accompanied Mrs. S. O. Schaub to Baltimore Sunday night where she enters the Johns Hopkins Hospital for treatment.

Mrs. W. G. Shipman and daughter, Elizabeth, are spending the week with relatives in Greensboro.

John Dyer left Tuesday morning for Louisville, Ky., where he will enter a medical college.

Mrs. R. N. Mitchell, who has been visiting her brother, B. A. Best, left Tuesday for Conway, S. C.

Misses Maggie and Bessie Sice-loff went to Winston Tuesday to be present at the wedding of their friend which occurred Wednesday morning.

Workers in The Review contest take advantage of this opportunity. Make your votes do double duty by availing yourself of Miss Venetia Smith's generous offer. The votes count both for the hat and all other regular prizes.

The Misses Shaffner spent last Sunday with their parents in Burlington.

A good many people from here are attending the Raleigh Fair this week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Brown of Carthage, are visiting their sister, Mrs. Otis Mendenhall.

Miss Julia Ryan returned Sunday from an extended visit to relatives in Lynchburg.

Miss Myrtle Shields of Reidsville, spent several days with her parents here the first of the week.

Quite a number of people from here went to Winston and Salisbury this week to attend Ringling Bros. circus.

Mrs. W. D. Armfield, with her daughter, Mrs. G. F. Duncan, left Sunday to attend the funeral of her son, J. E. L. Armfield, who died in Fayetteville Sunday.

Mr. D. H. Blair, Republican nominee for Congress, spoke at the warehouse Wednesday evening to a large audience. He made a very strong speech and seemed to be quite confident that he will be elected.

Mrs. John Harrell is very ill at her home on Bane Avenue.

Talmage Rochelle, who is at Trinity College, has recovered from a week's illness and has resumed his studies again.

Mr. J. A. Smith, of Bessemer City, visited his sister, Miss Venetia Smith, Wednesday, on his way home from the Raleigh fair.

Misses Mary and Henrietta White went to Raleigh Wednesday to attend the fair and visit their sister, Miss James Griffin.

R. J. Hole, superintendent of the Public Service Co here, left Thursday night for Galena, Ill., where he goes on business for his company. He will return to High Point about the last of December.

Young ladies! Enter The Review contest now, and show some of these old contestants how easy it is to win that hat Miss Venetia Smith is offering for the young lady securing the largest number of votes in our big contest during the next two weeks.

A Terrific Hurricane in Florida

The hurricane which has been sweeping over both the eastern and western coasts of Florida for the past week is abating and the damage done by the storm is being rapidly repaired. Telephone and telegraph wires which were torn down by the wind at different points have been repaired and Jacksonville, St. Augustine, and Tampa are again in communication with the world. Wireless messages from Tampa state that the property loss there is comparatively slight and that no lives were lost in the storm. At Jacksonville, the damage was confined to the sinking of several barges and small crafts. There is no communication yet with the interior of Florida and it is said that it may be several days before the telegraph lines can be restored to this section. Reports from points north give accounts of much damage done by the hurricane and all boats along the coasts are being warned.

EDITOR IN BALTIMORE

Mr. W. L. Stamey, editor of The Review, is in Baltimore, where he went to consult with Dr. John C. Hemmitte, the eminent stomach specialist, in connection with the Johns Hopkins University.

DORSETT-PEELER

A wedding which is of much interest to the people here is that of Rev. Shuford Peeler and Miss Etta Dorsett which occurred Tuesday evening at 6 o'clock at the Bethany Reformed church in Davidson county, Rev. W. H. McNairy officiating.

The couple left immediately after the ceremony to visit points north. They will attend the meeting of the Potomac Synod of the Reformed church at Altoona, Pa., and will also visit Washington, Baltimore and Philadelphia. They will be at home in Greensboro after November 1st. Rev. Peeler is pastor of the First Reformed church in Greensboro. The bride is the daughter of the late Dr. Dorsett and a sister of Mrs. P. H. Johnson, of this city.

BROOKS-WILKERSON

Thursday evening at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Q. O. Moffitt, on Hamilton street, Miss Flora Brooks and Mr. J. A. Wilkerson were united in the holy bonds of matrimony, Rev. Ader officiating. The wedding was a quiet affair, only a few friends and relatives being present. Immediately after the ceremony, the young couple left for a honeymoon south.

Miss Brooks, who has been in the employ of T. J. Gold for some time is very popular with her many friends here. Mr. Wilkerson has a position with the Snow Lumber Co.

LEADING MAN DROWNED

Robert Barton Pahr, leading man in Thomas Dixon's famous play, "The Sins of the Fathers," was drowned at Wrightsville Beach Sunday afternoon while surf bathing. The young actor was a good swimmer, but ventured out too far and was caught in a powerful undertide. Some of the young men who were with him saw him suddenly stretch his arms above his head, and immediately realized that the swimmer was in danger. They started towards him, but he was so far out that he sank several times, and when help arrived, he was unconscious and made no effort to get hold of his rescuers. The young men who were trying to help him were almost exhausted when they got back to shore. The body was not recovered until Thursday and when found was badly mutilated by ed sharks and crabs.

BOOKER T. WASHINGTON TO SPEAK HERE

Booker T. Washington will speak at the warehouse here the 29th of October under the auspices of the Normal Institute. No doubt a large crowd will be out to hear the leader of the negro race.

Dr. H. C. Pitts is spending the week in Baltimore and Washington, where he is visiting some prominent dental colleges.

Jos. Mitteldorfer, representative of the Ullman-Philpott Co. of Cleveland, Ohio, was a visitor here Thursday.

W. C. Herndon left Thursday morning to visit friends and relatives in Durham and Roxboro.

HIGH POINT TOWNSHIP S. S. CONVENTION

The High Point Township School School Convention held a meeting Sunday afternoon at Deep River church. A large crowd was present and the meeting was very interesting and helpful to all who attended. Mr. A. M. Briggs, president of the Convention, and H. A. Moffitt, chairman executive committee, made very interesting talks. J. W. Paylor, John Welborne, J. W. Clinard, A. M. Rankin and others also made short speeches.

REVIVAL SERVICES AT FIRST REFORMED CHURCH

Rev. W. H. Causey, of Concord, is conducting a revival at the First Reformed church. Large crowds are attending each evening and much interest is being manifested.

THE STATE FAIR

The state fair is being largely attended by people from all over the state. The gates were opened Tuesday morning at 8 o'clock. At noon Governor Kitchin made the opening address and the great state fair was in full blast. The fair this year is really a great one, exceeding in number and quality the exhibits of the past, and will go down in history as a record-breaker. Men and women who have attended the fair for years declare without hesitation that this one exceeds all of the great fairs of past years. The exhibits this year surpass by far those of previous years, both in extent and general excellence, the premium list having been thoroughly revised and put on a more educational basis. The fair will continue all through Saturday, and the events that were called off on Wednesday on account of rain will occur Saturday.

MISS MARY DENSON WINS

The Leonard - Beavans - Stamey Company Merchant's Prize

At 5:00 p. m. Thursday, the contest for the above firm's special prize came to a close. During the last two weeks, the management has been constantly on the guess as to what the result would be. For a while Miss Jaunita Hammer was in the lead, then she took a back seat in favor of Miss Rochelle, who in turn lost her position just as the clock reached five. Miss Mary Denson brought in a bunch of votes that put her in the lead by a small majority, thus to her goes the prize given by this excellent firm, a handsome kimona. We appreciate very much the earnest efforts made by the different contestants.

Miss Hattie Gray has just entered the race in earnest and is showing some good running qualities. We predict that she is going to give some one a lively chase before this thing is over. The fun has just started and the best things are still to come. Let's all be off at a lively gallop for Miss Venetia Smith's grand prize, a $5 hat or a credit of $5 on any hat in her establishment. This prize is open to all contestants in or out of High Point. Do not let the above standing confuse you. This is merely the position that these young ladies attained during the past two weeks, but does not in any way reveal their standing for the entire race up to date.
